

Our Program: Exhibitions focus on the fine arts, architecture, contemporary craft and design. Weekly public programs include lectures, musical performances, films, literary readings and educational activities for children. Go to www.mocadetroit.org for details and updates.

Our Mission: The mission of the Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit is to present art at the forefront of contemporary culture. As a non-collecting institution, MOCAD is responsive to the cultural content of our time, fueling crucial dialogue, collaboration, and public engagement.

Don't Miss: The MOCAD Store includes merchandise not sold in the metropolitan area, particularly specialized art and culture magazines, journals and books as well as limited edition artists t-shirts and other functional art objects. The MOCAD Café emphasizes organic food, salads, unique sandwiches, desserts and coffees, and provides a space for conversations and meetings.

Our Space: Located on Woodward and Garfield between the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the Detroit Institute of the Arts, Wayne State University and the College for Creative Studies, the Museum is an innovative addition to Detroit's Cultural Center, and functions as a hub for the exploration of emerging ideas in the contemporary arts. The 22,000 square foot building, a former auto dealership, provides raw, flexible and cavernous spaces, making the building well-suited to the exhibition of contemporary art.
