The mission of the Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit is to present art at the forefront of contemporary culture. As a non-collecting institution, MOCAD is responsive to the cultural content of our time, fueling crucial dialogue, collaboration, and public engagement.

Become a member of the Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit and support the development of our arts and cultural community. Join us in making MOCAD a hub for the exploration of new ideas in contemporary art.

Our Program includes exhibitions that focus on the fine arts, architecture, contemporary craft and design. Weekly public programs include lectures, musical performances, films, literary readings and educational activities for children. Go to www.mocadetroit.org for details and updates.

MOCAD is located in a former auto dealership at the corner of Woodward and Garfield—between Orchestra Hall and the DIA, Wayne State University and the College for Creative Studies.

MOCAD is a 501(c)3 organization.
